

#shareEU

SHAPING OF THE EUROPEAN CITIZENSHIP IN THE POST-TOTALITARIAN SOCIETIES. REFLECTIONS AFTER 15 YEARS OF EU ENLARGEMENT

PROJECT OBJECTIVES:

- to stimulate reflection on: political and social transformation and the course of democratization of social life in post-totalitarian European societies;
- shaping European citizenship, common history. European values;
- stimulation of local communities for discussion and participation in building citizenship and shaping European identity;
- inclusion of decision makers and knowledge multipliers into the reflection;
- making society more sensitive to threats posed by all kinds of totalitarian practices

ACTIONS, RESULTS. METHODS:

- interviews & surveys-in local communities various age & professional groups;
- research reports;
- workshops, seminars, conference;
- leader & teacher training; development of teaching materials (incl. city-game);
- post-project publication

RESULTS:

- at least 300 interviews and surveys in local communities;
- 3 local and 1 international research reports; programs of international workshops (incl. city-game) and conferences;
- two days final conference;
- min. 50 people-leaders trained to multiplier work; local training programs and multiplication
- educational materials for approx. 250 local participants&leaders - cascade multiplication of results.
- 3 syllabi for new academic courses;
- 1 post-project publication

Partner organizations:

UNIWERSYTET JAGIELLO SKI (PL)
UNIVERSITA DEGLI STUDI DELL AQUILA (LT)
UNIVERZITA MATEJA BELA V BANSKEJ BYSTRICI (SK)
WI TOKRZYCKIE CENTRUM DOSKONALENIA NAUCZYCIELI (PL)
POWIAT KIELECKI (PL)

WE ARE LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS!

Contact person: elzbleta.mach@wp.pl

Project number: (609162-CITIZ-1-2019-1-pl -c it iz-r emem)

Financing Programme: Europe for Citizens

Sub-Programme: Strand1 - European Remembrance

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

Europe
for Citizens